ACTIVE ETHICS CONTINUED

Here is an abbreviated third pillar of Active Ethics, written by Robb Gordon, ACBL National Recorder. Titled The Principle of Full Disclosure, it is a good reminder before our Regional.

"Bridge is not like poker. Your opponents have the right to know any agreements you have whether explicit or implicit. The Alerting regulations are a guide and they occasionally change. When you are the declaring side, make sure undisclosed agreements are straightened out for the opponents before the opening lead. If you are the defending side you may not clarify any misinformation for the opponents until the deal is over."
